Forecast For Northern Ireland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Tuesday 14 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cloudy, damp, misty start. Bright spells developing with scattered showers.

Today:
A cloudy start with patches of mist and drizzle. Brightening up later this morning with sunny intervals this afternoon along with a few heavy showers, mostly in west. Light winds. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Tonight:
It will be rather cloudy with scattered showers continuing during the night. Also a few mist patches forming by morning. Light winds. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Wednesday:
A rather cloudy day with showers continuing. The showers will become more frequent for a time early in the afternoon, dying out later with sunny then clear periods developing. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Dry, bright for much of Thursday but strengthening winds later with rain on Thursday night. Cloudy with further rain and lighter winds on Friday, then drier, brighter weather returning  Saturday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.